

Minutes of the May 11, 2005 New Jersey Computer Club General Meeting

The regular second Wednesday monthly General Meeting of the New Jersey Computer Club was held at the North Branch Reformed Church starting at 6:55 PM. There were 34 members and guests in attendance.

The "Random Access" portion of the meeting was conducted by John Beck. He showed a number of web sites, including pricewatch.com.

Fred Sabin, NJCC President, conducted the business portion of the meeting. The treasurer's report and the financial report were approved.

John Beck and Fred Sabin then discussed the upcoming NJCC meeting presentations. These include the June 8th presentation on using MS Word, particularly to prepare camera-ready books for publishers. Tom Kehoe, who has done several such books, will lead the discussion. Possible answers will be given for other questions concerning Word use that you might have.

In September, Fred Sabin will do a presentation on PC troubleshooting. October will find Gene Barlow, a hard disk expert, demonstrating Acronis True Image and other software; Tom Kirk will demo Creative Labs latest products in November; and in December we will have our annual Christmas party and Chinese auction.

Rich Byrne, 1st Vice President gave the main presentation: How Do You Like Your Email? Many email applications and problems were comprehensively discussed.

The meeting adjourned at approximately 9:05 PM.

Respectfully submitted,

Tom Kehoe
Secretary
